What’s Changing?

❖ The creation of a General Education Office to:
  ○ partner with colleges/units on enrollment management and scheduling
  ○ provide faculty support
❖ Two new course categories that emphasize perspective-taking and interdisciplinary thinking (replacing Tier 1 and 2 sequence)
❖ The development of attributes that connect across the curriculum and facilitate transfer of learning
❖ Two 1-unit courses bookending student GE experience:
  ■ An introductory GE course
  ■ A concluding portfolio course
Curriculum

Portfolio (Exit Course)
1 unit

Attributes
Introduction to General Education

A new 1-unit course required of incoming freshmen. The goals of the course are to facilitate:

- Introducing students to General Education & its conceptual foundations (interdisciplinary thinking, perspective-taking, reflection on learning)
- Start ePortfolios in Digication & develop digital literacy practices
- Transitioning to UArizona, including:
  - Supporting student well-being
  - Encouraging academic success
Foundations (no changes)

Typically 9 units, Foundations courses engage students in critical thinking and prepare them for future college work. Students must take or accomplish the equivalency of the following:

- Quantitative thinker (3 units)
- Writer (6 units*)
- Second-language learner (proficiency requirement, variable*)

*Number of units is variable depending on method of meeting writing & second language requirements
Portfolio Course

A new 1-unit course required of all UArizona students as a capstone to their General Education experience. The goals of the course are to help students:

- Develop an ePortfolio that reflects on their achievement of the General Education learning outcomes
- Reflect on their experience in General Education as a whole
- Identify potential connections between General Education courses & their major / professional aspirations
Exploring Perspectives

These courses introduce students to ways of thinking, knowing, and doing from the perspective of different disciplinary domains. Students will explore and practice the varied approaches of the:

- Artist
- Humanist
- Social Scientist
- Natural Scientist

- Choose at least one course from each perspective (12 units minimum)
- Courses can carry attributes that overlay (Writing, Diversity and Equity, World Cultures and Societies, Quantitative Reasoning)
Building Connections

These courses encourage students to bring together knowledge and modes of thinking from two or more disciplines and/or perspectives in order to foster more comprehensive understanding of questions, ideas, challenges, and/or problems. Students will utilize interdisciplinary approaches and multi-perspective taking to practice being:

- Conceptual Thinkers
- Creative Problem Solvers

- Choose three courses from any categories (9 units minimum)
- Courses can carry attributes that overlay (Writing, Diversity and Equity, World Cultures and Societies, Quantitative Reasoning)
Attributes

Exploring Perspectives and Building Connections courses can carry the following attributes (likely only 1-2 attributes per course):

- Diversity and Equity (2 courses required, one with a U.S. focus)
- Quantitative Reasoning (2 courses required)
- World Cultures and Societies (1 course required)
- Writing (2 courses required)
Pedagogy - A Hallmark of Gen Ed Curriculum

Students should have the opportunity to have a high-quality, engaged learning experience. As such, all Gen Ed courses will:

- Engage students in active and collaborative learning
- Provide ample opportunities for success through regular, low-stakes assessments (formative and summative)
- Have clearly stated learning outcomes and objectives
- Use evidence-based practices and inclusive pedagogical approaches
- Emphasize disciplinary/interdisciplinary perspective-taking
- Elevate diverse voices and scholarship whenever possible (e.g. BIPOC, disabled people, LGBTQIA+, women, and others who have been marginalized in their abilities, contributions, and knowledge)
Signature Assignments

All Exploring Perspectives and Building Connections courses will include at least one signature assignment (developed by instructors) that will be included in students’ GE ePortfolios. These will allow students to utilize highlighted perspectives from each course to showcase learning, skills, and personal reflection.

- Connect to at least one course learning outcome
- Can be creative (websites, videos, performances, etc.)
- Should consider an external audience during development and highlight student strengths (skills, writing, growth)
Timeline

Three Stage Development Process

Stage 1: by Dec.
- Finalize curriculum
  - Complete Approval Process
  - Determine Fiscal Impact
  - Begin System Development

Stage 2: by Mar. 1
- Determine Final Budget
  - Open Proposal Window

Stage 3: by Mar. 1
- Determine Scheduling/Enrollment Management Processes
Thanks and Questions are Welcomed!
